

Mime-Out-Loud

Are words always necessary to express yourself? Imagine a world which consists of only words which are just said and not meant! Mime is all about expressing your feelings through various forms of drama. If you can feel what you want to convey, words are not always necessary to express yourself. Most of the time things are conveyed without words, certain things always remain "UNSPOKEN". Come to felicity and let the beats of your heart be heard aloud and your expression say a million words.

Registration Fees: Rs 500 Per Team
